About INAE

Founded on 20 April 1987 as a Registered Society under the Societies Registration Act of 1860 and headquartered at Technology Bhavan, New Delhi, the Indian National Academy of Engineering comprises India's most distinguished engineers, engineer-scientists and technologists covering the entire spectrum of engineering disciplines. INAE functions as an apex body and promotes the practice of engineering & technology and the related sciences for their application to solving problems of national importance. The Academy also provides a forum for futuristic planning for country's development requiring engineering and technological inputs and brings together specialists from such fields as may be necessary for comprehensive solutions to the needs of the country.

INAE represents India at the International Council of Academies of Engineering and Technological Sciences (CAETS).

About INAE Technology Conclave

The Conclave will have discourses on focal themes, contributory presentations of Extended Abstracts in all fields of Engineering, industry, poster presentations and start-up exposition. This year the focal theme will be Energy Security, Transportation and logistics, Health Care Technology and Reduction and Diversification in Energy Intensive Industries. This is the second such Conclave. The first one was held at IIT Bombay in 2025.

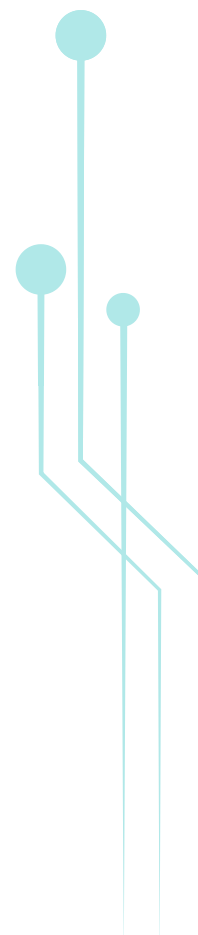

The Conclave has four focus areas:

Technologies that are being used or being developed in some of the critical areas such as long-term Energy Security, Health Care Technology, Transportation and Logistics and Next Generation Communication, Critical Minerals exploration and exploitation Oil and Gas exploration, Reduction and Diversification in Energy Intensive Industries.

To expose young engineering professionals to the emerging national problems and their solutions in some of the critical areas.

Encouraging Start-ups and entrepreneurs to show case their initiatives in problem solving.

Engaging academia, researchers and industries aligned with INAE mandate of advancing engineering excellence for India's development by presentation of Extended Abstracts.

About Bhubaneswar & Host Institutes

Bhubaneswar, the capital of Odisha, is a unique blend of ancient heritage and modern development, making it an ideal venue for the INAE Technology Conclave 2026 at Siksha 'O' Anusandhan University. Known as the “Temple City of India,” the city is historically linked to the ancient Kalinga kingdom and the famous Kalinga War of 261 BCE, after which Emperor Ashoka embraced Buddhism. Bhubaneswar is renowned for its rich architectural heritage, including the Lingaraj, Mukteswar, and Rajarani Temples, while nearby Konark and Puri form Odisha’s celebrated cultural and spiritual “Golden Triangle.”

In recent decades, Bhubaneswar has also emerged as a major knowledge, healthcare, and technology hub of eastern India. The city hosts premier institutions such as IIT Bhubaneswar, AIIMS Bhubaneswar, Institute of Physics, National Institute of Science Education and Research, CSIR-IMMT Bhubaneswar, ICT-IOC Bhubaneswar Campus, Siksha 'O' Anusandhan University, IEEE Bhubaneswar Section, and AIC-SOA Foundation. With its growing ecosystem of research institutions, startups, and technology parks, the city offers delegates an inspiring environment that reflects both India’s timeless heritage and its dynamic technological future.
